

MARY SHARON MOORE, M.T.S.

Founder of Awakening Vocations & Creator of The L.A.S.T. Workshop

SPEAKER PROFILE

Since 1997 Mary Sharon Moore, M.T.S., vocational consultant and author, has been speaking on topics of mature faith and the expression of one's gifts and calling in the world. With gentle grace and quiet conviction Mary Sharon touches the hearts, minds, and imagination of Christian men and women and of all who seek to "do good" in the world.

Throughout the Pacific Northwest and across the United States, Mary Sharon's warm and welcoming style has infused audiences with a passion to get up and engage their lives wholeheartedly for the good of "this world which God so loves."

Mary Sharon's work with parishes has brought encouragement, clarity, and interior strength with the resounding vocational message, "You are anointed for a purpose!" She is author of Touching the Reign of God: Bringing theological reflection to daily life (Wipf & Stock, 2009) and numerous articles.

Mary Sharon is creator of the L.A.S.T. Workshop, building wholehearted workteam participation in growth-driven organizations. Her Corporate Communications Clinic removes obstacles to communicating messages clearly to internal and external audiences.

Mary Sharon is a teacher of the powerful "Called & Gifted: workshop of the Catherine of Siena Institute, and delivers workshops, retreats, and parish missions on topics of mature Christian faith, prayer and liturgical life, and charism and vocation discernment. She has a master's degree in Theological Studies from the Franciscan School of Theology, in Berkeley, California, and is an active spiritual and vocational director nationwide.
