“My Study Coach” Process

1. You and your student meet with Mary Sharon Moore for a one-hour free consultation to see if My Study Coach can help your student. If so, a Letter of Agreement is signed by all parties.
2. Mary Sharon will come to your home for each prescheduled 50-minute session. Your student is expected to be on time and prepared for each session.
3. Each session will begin and end with prayer. The student’s accountability for homework completion will be placed in the context of accountability for good stewardship of God’s gifts of intellect, imagination, and the freedom to learn—gifts given for the service of others.
4. Following the session, you will receive a brief e-mail recap of the session, pointing out strengths, achievements, things we are working on, and anything else that needs to come to your attention.
5. Once a quarter parents are entitled to a free one-hour consultation to assess progress.
6. An invoice will be sent at the end of each month.

The usual fee for each session is $25. This fee includes:

- ✓ At home student coaching;
- ✓ E-mailed parent updates after each session;
- ✓ One free session after six paid sessions with My Study Coach’s Discount Card.
- ✓ One free parent consultation per quarter;
- ✓ The quarterly The Coach Is In e-newsletter;
- ✓ Parent-Teacher consultation when needed.

Note: A mileage fee at the current IRS rate may be applied for travel beyond five miles.

My Study Coach provides ongoing personalized guidance, support, high expectations, and encouragement as your student reaches for a higher threshold of performance and accountability in homework, academics, and life.
