

VOCATION DISCERNMENT INTERVIEW

Awakening Vocations wants to know how you came to understand God's calling in your life.

Please take a few minutes to complete this interview and share your thoughts, ideas, and encouragement with others who are seeking to discern God's calling in their life. Anonymous comments will be available at www.awakeningvocations.com, and in Awakening Vocations' quarterly newsletter, News & Views. You may return this interview to Awakening Vocations by e-mail (scanned pdf), by regular mail, or by fax.

In one sentence, how would you describe your vocation, or how God has called you personally?

Before you discovered or could name how God was calling you personally, what were you looking for?

Before you discovered or could name how God was calling you personally, how were you praying?
What were you praying for?

Has your vocation changed or grown or matured in recent times? How so?

(For married couples): At what point did you know with great certainty that God was calling each of you to Christian married life and to Christian married life with each other?

What would you say are the absolutely essentials to discerning God's calling?

What word of advice or encouragement would you share with others who are wondering how God is calling them?
